Kenſington, June 8.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Inverneſs, has been preſented to His Majeſty by John Campbell, Eſq; Member of Parliament for the ſaid Burgh, &c. being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Northumberland, one of the Lords of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Inverneſs, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, with our dutiful and thankful Acknowledgments, for your early and continued paternal Care of the Intereſts of your Crown and People, when they are threatned at Home, and invaded Abroad, by the faithleſs French, the avowed Enemies of our Religion and Country.

Your Navies and Armies, under the Protection which God has been pleaſed to vouchſafe to you and them, render your People ſecure and happy, in the Enjoyment of their Religion, Laws and Liberties, and give Hopes, that the Invaſion upon the Rights of your Crown in America will bring Diſappointment and Ruin upon the wicked Projects of the perfidious Aggreſſors.

Suffer us now, moſt Gracious Sovereign, to offer you our moſt grateful Thanks for your fatherly Care and Royal Bounty extended to our Neighbourhood. Its happy Effects begin to appear, and we rejoice in the Proſpect of ſeeing Induſtry, Manufactures, and lawful Obedience, take Place where they were never properly eſtabliſhed.

May your Navies and Armies be ſtill victorious; may your Royal Iſſue ſucceed to the Crown of your Dominions to lateſt Ages; and may your Majeſty live long, and rejoice in the Happineſs of your People: Theſe are our earneſt Prayers.

Subſcribed the 10th Day of May 1756, by our Appointment and in our Preſence, by

John Hoſſack, Provoſt.

At a Meeting this Day of the Justices appointed by the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council, by their Order of the 25th of November, 1745, to put in Execution His Majesty's several Orders of Council, within the County of Middlesex, in Relation to the Infected Cattle.

WHEREAS the Time draws near for holding a Fair in this County, called Welch Fair, for the selling of horned Cattle, which said Fair used to be held at Islington, but lately has been held at Barnett: And whereas we have Cause to believe the said Infection, which, during the Summer Time, in this County has greatly decreased, has for some Years, by Reason of this Fair, broke out again, and raged very much during the Months of September, October, and November, Therefore, in order to prevent such Spreading of the said Distemper, and in Pursuance of the Powers and Authorities given, as well by his Majesty's Orders in Council, as by the several Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made; We do order and direct, That no Fair or Market, or other publick Place of Sale, be held or kept within the County, for the Sale of horned Cattle, (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) from the Fifteenth Day of August next, to the Tenth Day of October following, And that no Person or Persons shall or do presume to drive, send, or remove, or cause to be driven, sent, or removed, any horned Cattle (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) to any Fair, Market, or other publick Place of Sale in this County, within the Time before-mentioned, under the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, mentioned, sett, or imposed, by His Majesty's said Orders in Council, or the said Acts of Parliament, or any of them, in that Case made. PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of Elias De Paz, late of London, Merchant, deceased, are on or before the 22d Day of June instant, to come in and prove their respective Debts before Richard Edwards, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn, Chancery Lane, London, or they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

IN June 1755, I was seized in Jamaica with a Bilious Fever, a Disorder very common in that Island, and in a few Hours was delirious; they bled me and gave me a Vomit, but my Fever continuing very High, I took Dr. James's Powder, (that is sold at Mr. Newbery's in St. Paul's Church-Yard) one Dose of which vomited and purged me pretty much, and then sweat me profusely, after which I slept some Hours, and the Fever entirely left me. I thought it was prudent however to take a Dose or two of Bark, which I did, and soon recover'd my Strength. My Carpenter, James Caseburn, was in our Passage Home taken with a Fever, which threw him into strong Convulsions, so that his Arms, Legs and Body, were contracted or distorted to a very great Degree, and every one in the Ship gave him over for lost; but upon taking two Doses of the Powders, which worked him pretty much, he perfectly recovered.
